WHITE SOX-OUTLAWS
DECIDE TO BEHAVE

Adopting as their motto "We are here to satisfy" the Outlaws and the White Sox will endeavor to satisfy the crowd which will meet to see them play on the Polo street grounds this afternoon at three o'clock.

The members of both teams frankly admit that the crowd was not satisfied last Sunday, and being repentant over their childish actions, they decided to make the best thing they can do is to get together and put up a brand of ball which will be of the right sort.

To this end today's game has been arranged. The teams will line up practically as before, Garrison being back on the mound for the Outlaws.

In the words of Captain Westfall,

Carrison "was on the bum" last week and failed to put in his appearance.

He has promised to be on hand this time.

Following are the line-ups for both teams:

NEWS FROM GRIDS

OF COAST SCHOOLS

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—Collegiate football virtually was in full swing throughout the west today, with coaches still busily engaged in sifting players and smoothing plays for the bigger games of the near future. Practice games thus far have given the bleachers no particularly scintillating stars whose names they might "bracket" in their yells.

The California varsity continues to devote much of its practice time to starting plays, observers having commented much on the peculiar system evolved. Using, it is said, a standing signal such as adopted by the Harvard varsity, the Bears have evolved various fake maneuvers designed to give opponents considerable trouble in timing their attack. In spite of the work of Coaches Smith, Zeigler and Mahan, the tackling of the Bears' first squad has come in for criticism.

They have downed opponents consistently thus far, however, having prevented two strong club teams from scoring on them.

Southern California, minus the services of Fred Kelly, the champion sprinter who was announced on his way west to rejoin the team, put in 45 minutes practice last Saturday with a rejuvenated St. Vincent's college team.

As a result, Southern football fans apparently are not only satisfied with early season form of the Trojans, but expectant of good entertainment from the St. Vincents, who a few years ago were a considerable factor in the American game.

Nobody at Palo Alto seems to be depressed over the Cardinal's comparative isolation in football resulting from its determination to stick to Rugby. Five Stanford teams engaged in combat last Saturday, the varsity downing the Olympic club of San Francisco by a decisive score. Stanford-California relations are also severed as to swimming, although this is announced as a case of full schedules, nothing more.

Kai Lee, Chinese quarterback, registered at Berkeley from Dinuba, Cal., gained plaudits Saturday by the way he handled the Freshmen Bears, which held the Olympic American team to a 6 to 0 score.

Devotees of amateur wrestling and boxing on the coast are cheered by the recent organization of the Pacific Coast Amateur Boxing Federation, to which the Olympic club, of San Francisco, the Los Angeles Athletic club
